

Code Creation: Programming

Criteria	5 pt	3 pt	1pt
Creativity/Originality: Piece stands out as unique and original. The composition and delivery has strong evidence of critical thinking skills.
Visual Impact: Product supports a desired mood, and visually appealing.
Copyright: The image is original. There are no issues with copyright; Image is school appropriate.
Relevance: The program works and meets all specifications.
Access: Automatic 3 points if can be viewed online.
Readability: The code is exceptionally well organized and very easy to follow.
Usability: User can launch and operate the code independently.
Documentation: The code is well documented and explains clearly what the code is accomplishing and how. The explanation makes important connections and show a depth of understanding.
Purpose of Design: The code has multiple layers or a complex design. (not just one path)
Interaction: User interface fits content well. The instructions are well-written and part of the design. The instructions are clear and easy to understand.
Scripting: Project shows advance understanding of blocks and procedures.

Additional Comments:

Total: